

Tips for Group Discussion

- Proper professional opening of the Group Discussion. Define the title. Clear communication with good content is required.
- Try to take initiative to speak at an early stage in the discussion. Do not share one line and stop.
- Structure your point of view to avoid fillers/thinking pauses.
- Use correct grammar. Make simple sentences in case you find it difficult to frame sentences.
- Develop your contextual vocabulary by reading articles on the related topics loudly. Listen to relevant content through English audio/talks.
- Positive and solution oriented approach.
- Pay attention to voice modulation and sound confident.
- Be a good and patient listener.
- Talk respectfully towards each other. Do not argue, since it's a discussion.
- Go with the flow of the discussion.
- No cross talking during the discussion.
- Do not contradict your own point.
- Do not try to be in the limelight by not allowing others to speak.
- Do not point fingers or don't make too much eye contact with the HiringManager. Create eye contact with the speaker, also give a light head nod.
- Do not try to pull your peers down by raising your voice. Try to understand the other's point of view and then respond.
- Proper conclusion with a good summary including the concluder's viewpoint will surely make a difference.
